Approved For Release 2002/08/15: CIA-RDP83-004158007400170001-0  CLASSIFICATION TO CRORD / SCHOOL - U.S. OFFICIALS CHE CHARMA INTELLIGENCE AGENCY  INFORMATION REPORT CO NO  25X1A  CUNTRY Cwechcelovakia  CRETISTR 8 Feb. 1951  LAGE 25X1A  LAGE 25X1A  CQUIRED  ATE OF  NFO.  25X1X  SUPPLEMENT TO  REPORT NO.  1. The Czechcelovakia army is concentuly undergoing a recognalization. Vacancies caused by recent purges are to be filled with politically reliable persons, Reserve officers are to be called for extensive three-year training, possibly in the USSR, and those who are judged unreliable are to be reindoctrimated for military service.  2. Officers who had formarly served with the Careh Army of the First Republic and who are still or military generation of their renks and drafted. This order effects many forwer priests.*  3. Slowak troops are still considered unreliable and are therefore mixed with other troops. Special units of unreliable but previously trained troops are being formed for work in mines. The training of new recruits is being continued  4. Old German and new Soviet equipment is used, and all new equipment is under tight security controls. These conditions also provail at the Fardubice and Prague atrificials.  5. Since 1 January 1951 all insignia has been adapted to Soviet standards.  6. Rest hotels at Earloyy Very are now used as an army hesiquarters, nossibly for the border control command. New Soviet officers are stetlomed there; they are setched seen seen in informs. A direct Moscow-Kerlovy V-ry railroad connection is to be opened in North 1951.  7. Trooper's stationed throughout Czechcalovakia have recently been sent to the Bavarian border. Relarge concentrations of two ope on the Austrian border here been reported to date.  5X1A  25X1A			••	07400470004 0	06/34
CENTRAL ENTELLIGENCE AGENCY REPORT OF REPORT OF REPORT AS Feb. 1951  COUNTRY Czechoslovakia  CATEDISTR 8 Feb. 1951  COUNTRY Czechoslovakia  COUNTRY Czechoslovakia  COUNTRY Czechoslovakia  COUNTRY Czechoslovakia  COUNTRY Czechoslovakia  COUNTRY  COUN			Approved For Release 2002/08/15 : CIA-RDP83-00415R00	0/4001/0001-0	~ · ·
CENTRAL ENTELLIGENCE AGENCY REPORT OF REPORT OF REPORT AS Feb. 1951  COUNTRY Czechoslovakia  CATEDISTR 8 Feb. 1951  COUNTRY Czechoslovakia  COUNTRY Czechoslovakia  COUNTRY Czechoslovakia  COUNTRY Czechoslovakia  COUNTRY Czechoslovakia  COUNTRY  COUN			CLASSIFICATION		UC DA
25X1A CURTRY Czechoslowskin  1. The Czechoslowskin  25X1A  CURTRY Czechoslowskin  25X1A  CURTRED  ATE OF  ATE OF  NFO.  25X1A  CURTRED  ATE OF  NFO.  25X1X  CURTRED  ATE OF  NFO.  25X1X  CURTRED  ATE OF  NFO.  25X1X  CURTRED  ATE OF  Supplement for a boalled for extensive three-year training, possibly in the USSR, and those who are judgeture-lineable are to be reindestricted for military service.  2. Officers who had formerly served with the Czech Army of the First Republic and who are still of military age will be stripped of their ranks and drafted. This order affects many forcer priests.*  3. Slowsk troops are still considered unreliable and are therefore mixed with other troops. Special units of unreliable but previously trained troops are being formed for work in mines. The training of new recruits is being continued  4. Cld German and new Soviet equipment is used, and all new equipment is under tight security controls. These conditions also prevail at the Fardubics and Prague airfields.  5. Since I Jamury 1951 all insignia has been adapted to Soviet standards.  6. Bast hotels at Karlony Vary are now used as an army headquarters, possibly for the border control command. Nany Soviet officers are stationed three; they are seldion seen in uniform. A direct Moscon-Karlony V-ry rallroad connection is to be opened in March 1951.  7. Troops <sup>24</sup> stationed throughout Czechoslowskia have recently been sent to the Baswardan border. No large concentrations of troops on the Austrian border have been reported to date.  25X1A  25X1A  26 Comment: It cannot be determined from the report whether these priests with the Czech Republican Arry or had formerly been regul members of this arry.			10: DEVABL / GUNTROL - U.		NIX 1
CUNTRY Czechoslovakia  1. The Czechoslovak army is encerontly undergoing a reorganization. Vacancies GUURED ARE OF SUPPLEMENT TO SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.  25X1X Supplement To REPORT NO.  1. The Czechoslovak army is encerontly undergoing a reorganization. Vacancies onused by recent purges are to be filled with politically reliable persons, Reserve officers are to be called for extensive three-year training, possibly in the USSA, and those who are judged unreliable are to be reindoctrimated for military service.  2. Officers who had formarly served with the Czech Army of the First Republic and who are still of military age will be stripped of their ranks and draftd. This order affects many former priests.*  3. Slovak troops are still considered unreliable but previously trained troops are being formed for work in sines. The training of new recruits is being continued tight security controls. These conditions also prevail at the Fardubles and Prague airfields.  5. Since I January 1951 all insignia has been adapted to Soviet standards.  6. Best hotels at Karlovy Vary are now used as an army headquarters, possibly for the border control ocument. Wany Soviet officers are stationed three; they are seldion seen in uniform. A Say Soviet officers are stationed three; they are seldion seen in uniform. A large constructions of troops on the Austrian border have been reported to date.  25X1A *  1. Comment: No specific units or numbers of men are mentioned by source would be a surfaced and the services are stationed by source of this army.
LACE CQUIRED ATE OF SUPPLEMENT TO 25X1X REPORT NO.  1. The Czechoslovak army is apparently undergoing a reorganization. Vacancies caused by recent purges are to be filled with politically reliable persons. Reserve officers are to be called for extensive three-year training, possibly in the USSR, and those who are judge unreliable are to be reindoctrinated for military service.  2. Officers who had formarly served with the Czech Army of the First Republic and who are still of military age will be stripped of their ranks and drafted. This order affects many forwar prients.*  3. Slovak troops are still considered unreliable and are therefore mixed with other troops. Special units of unreliable but previously trained troops are being formed for work in mimes. The training of new recruits is being continued.  4. Cld German and new Soviet equipment is used, and all new equipment is under tight security controls. These conditions also prevail at the Fardubice and Prague afficials.  5. Since I January 1951 all insignia has been adapted to Soviet standards.  6. Rest hotels at Karlovy Vary are now used as an army headquarters, possibly for the border control command. Yeary Soviet officers are stationed there; they are seldom seen in uniform. A direct Noscow-Karlovy V-ry railroad connection is to be opened in Warch 1951.  7. Troops's stationed throughout Czechoslovakia have recently been sent to the Bavarrian border. No large concentrations of troops on the Austrian border have been reported to date.  25X1A *  Comment: No specific units or numbers of men are nentioned by source than and the continued to the continued to the same and the continued to the continued to the continued to the continued to the content of this army.			ுளா ுகிறமாற ்ற உள்ளது. முறுவர் அவரும் வ	KJES INIEJ.
1. The Czechoslovak army is appearently undergoing a reorganization. Vacancies on used by recent purges are to be failed with politically reliable persons, Reserve officers are to be called for extensive three-year training, possibly in the USSR, and those who are judge unreliable are to be reindoctrimated for military service.  2. Officers who had formarly served with the Czech Army of the First Republic and who are still of military age will be stripped of their renks and drafted. This order affects many former priests.*  3. Slovak troops are still considered unreliable and are therefore mixed with other troops. Special units of unreliable but previously trained troops are being formed for work in mines. The training of new recruits is being continued.  4. Old German and new Soviet equipment is used, and all new equipment is under tight security controls. These conditions also provail at the Fardubice and Prague affelds.  5. Since I January 1951 all insignia has been adapted to Soviet standards.  6. Rest hotels at Karlovy Vary are now used as an army headquarters, possibly for the border control command. Namy Soviet officers are stationed there; they are solden seen in uniform. A direct Moscow-Karlovy Vary railroad commention is to be opened in March 1951.  7. Troops stationed throughout Czechoslovakia have recently been sent to the Baverian border. No large concentrations of troops on the Austrian border have been reported to date.  25X1A *    Comment: No specific units or numbers of men are mentioned by source members of this army.	O	UNTRY	Czechoslovakia	DATE:DISTR.	8 Feb. 1951
1. The Czechozlowak army is anner ontly undergoing a recreation. Vacancies caused by recent purges are to be filled with politically reliable persons, Reserve officers are to be called for extensive three-year training, possibly in the USSR, and those who are judged unreliable are to be relindertrizated for military service.  2. Officers who had formarly served with the Czech Army of the First Republic and who are still of military age will be stripped of their ranks and drafted. This order affects many former priests.*  3. Slowak troops are still considered unreliable and are therefore mixed with other troops. Special units of unreliable but previously trained troops are being formed for work in mines. The training of new recruits is being continued  4. Old German and new Soviet equipment is used, and all new equipment is under tight security controls. These conditions also provail at the Fardubice and Prague airfields.  5. Since I January 1951 all insignia has been adapted to Soviet standards.  6. Rest hotels at Karlovy Vary are now used as an army headquarters, possibly for the border control command. Many Soviet officers are stationed there; they are soldem seen in uniform. A direct Moscow-Karlovy Vary railroad conmention is to be opened in March 1951.  7. Troops stationed throughout Czechoslowakia have recently been sent to the Bavarian border. No large concentrations of troops on the Austrian border have been reported to date.  SEXIA*    Comment: It cannot be determined from the report whether these priests were chaplaths with the Czech Republican Army or had forwarly been regul members of this army.	SUI	BJECT	Reorganization of Czech Army	MO. OF PAGES	1
1. The Czechozlowak army is anner ontly undergoing a recreation. Vacancies caused by recent purges are to be filled with politically reliable persons, Reserve officers are to be called for extensive three-year training, possibly in the USSR, and those who are judged unreliable are to be relindertrizated for military service.  2. Officers who had formarly served with the Czech Army of the First Republic and who are still of military age will be stripped of their ranks and drafted. This order affects many former priests.*  3. Slowak troops are still considered unreliable and are therefore mixed with other troops. Special units of unreliable but previously trained troops are being formed for work in mines. The training of new recruits is being continued  4. Old German and new Soviet equipment is used, and all new equipment is under tight security controls. These conditions also provail at the Fardubice and Prague airfields.  5. Since I January 1951 all insignia has been adapted to Soviet standards.  6. Rest hotels at Karlovy Vary are now used as an army headquarters, possibly for the border control command. Many Soviet officers are stationed there; they are soldem seen in uniform. A direct Moscow-Karlovy Vary railroad conmention is to be opened in March 1951.  7. Troops stationed throughout Czechoslowakia have recently been sent to the Bavarian border. No large concentrations of troops on the Austrian border have been reported to date.  SEXIA*    Comment: It cannot be determined from the report whether these priests were chaplaths with the Czech Republican Army or had forwarly been regul members of this army.			25V1A
1. The Czechoslovak army is apparently undergoing a reorganization. Vacancies caused by recent purges are to be filled with politically reliable persons. Reserve officers are to be called for extensive three-year training, possibly in the USEs, and those who are judge unreliable are to be reindectricated for military service.  2. Officers who had formarly served with the Czech Army of the First Republic and who are still of military age will be stripped of their renks and drafted. This order affects many former priests.*  3. Slovak troops are still considered unreliable and are therefore mixed with other troops. Special units of unreliable but previously trained troops are being formed for work in mines. The training of new recruits is being continued.  4. Old German and new Soviet equipment is used, and all new equipment is under tight security controls. These conditions also provail at the Fardubice and Frague airfields.  5. Since I January 1951 all insignia has been adapted to Soviet standards.  6. Rest hotels at Earlory Vary are now used as an army headquarters, possibly for the border control command. Nany Soviet officers are stationed there; they are seldom seen in uniform. A direct Moscow-Kerlovy V-ry railroad comment for the principle of the struy.  25X1A*    Comment: It cannot be determined from the report whether these principle of this struy.			25X TA	MO. OF ENCLS.	re.
1. The Csechoslovak army is apparently undergoing a reorganization. Vacancies caused by recent purges are to be filled with politically reliable persons. Reserve officers are to be called for extensive three-year training, possibly in the USSR, and those who are judged unreliable are to be reindoctrimated for military service.  2. Officers who had formerly served with the Czech Army of the First Republic and who are still of military age will be stripped of their renks and drafted. This order affects many former priests.*  3. Slovak troops are still considered unreliable and are therefore mixed with other troops. Special units of unreliable but previously trained troops are being formed for work in mines. The training of new recruits is being continued to the troops. Special units of unreliable but previously trained troops are being formed for work in mines. The training of new recruits is being continued a tight security controls. These conditions also prevail at the Pardubice and Prague airfields.  5. Since I January 1951 all insignia has been adapted to Soviet standards.  6. Rest hotels at Karlovy Vary are now used as an army headquarters, possibly for the border control command. Many Soviet officers are stationed there; they are solden seen in uniform. A direct Moscow-Karlovy V-ry railread conmection is to be opened in March 1951.  7. Troops stationed throughout Czechoslovakia have recently been sent to the Bawurian border. No large concentrations of troops on the Austrian border have been reported to date.  25X1A *  Comment: It cannot be determined from the report whether these priosits were charlains with the Czech Republican Army or had formerly been regul members of this army.  Comment: Ho specific units or numbers of men are mentioned by source	ΑŢ	E OF		Cristans masimises a	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
eaused by recent purges are to be filled with politically reliable persons. Reserve officers are to be called for extensive three-year training, possibly in the USSR, and those who are judge unreliable are to be reindoctrinated for military service.  2. Officers who had formerly served with the Czech Army of the First Republic and who are still of military age will be stripped of their ranks and drafted. This order affects many former priests.*  3. Slovak troops are still considered unreliable and are therefore mixed with other troops. Special units of unreliable but previously trained troops are being formed for work in mines. The training of new recruits is being continued  4. Old German and new Soviet equipment is used, and all new equipment is under tight security controls. These conditions also prevail at the Fardubice and Prague airfields.  5. Since 1 January 1951 all insignia has been adapted to Soviet standards.  6. Rest hotels at Karlovy Vary are now used as an army headquarters, possibly for the border control command. Many Soviet officers are stationed there; they are seldom seen in uniform. A direct Moscow-Kerlovy Vary railroad connection is to be opened in March 1951.  7. Troops stationed throughout Czechoslovakia have recently been sent to the Bavarian border. No large concentrations of troops on the Austrian border have been reported to date.  25X1A *  Comment: It cannot be determined from the report whether these priests were chaplains with the Czech Republican Army or had formerly been regul members of this army.  SX1A *  Comment: No specific units or numbers of men are mentioned by source			25X1X		: O
eaused by recent purges are to be filled with politically reliable persons. Reserve officers are to be called for extensive three-year training, possibly in the USSR, and those who are judge unreliable are to be reindoctrinated for military service.  2. Officers who had formerly served with the Czech Army of the First Republic and who are still of military age will be stripped of their ranks and drafted. This order affects many former priests.*  3. Slovak troops are still considered unreliable and are therefore mixed with other troops. Special units of unreliable but previously trained troops are being formed for work in mines. The training of new recruits is being continued  4. Old German and new Soviet equipment is used, and all new equipment is under tight security controls. These conditions also prevail at the Fardubice and Prague airfields.  5. Since 1 January 1951 all insignia has been adapted to Soviet standards.  6. Rest hotels at Karlovy Vary are now used as an army headquarters, possibly for the border control command. Many Soviet officers are stationed there; they are seldom seen in uniform. A direct Moscow-Kerlovy Vary railroad connection is to be opened in March 1951.  7. Troops stationed throughout Czechoslovakia have recently been sent to the Bavarian border. No large concentrations of troops on the Austrian border have been reported to date.  25X1A *  Comment: It cannot be determined from the report whether these priests were chaplains with the Czech Republican Army or had formerly been regul members of this army.  SX1A *  Comment: No specific units or numbers of men are mentioned by source caused by recent purges are to be filled with politically reliable persons. Reserve officers are to be called for extensive three-year training, possibly in the USSR, and those who are judge unreliable are to be reindoctrinated for military service.  2. Officers who had formerly served with the Czech Army of the First Republic and who are still of military age will be stripped of their ranks and drafted. This order affects many former priests.*  3. Slovak troops are still considered unreliable and are therefore mixed with other troops. Special units of unreliable but previously trained troops are being formed for work in mines. The training of new recruits is being continued  4. Old German and new Soviet equipment is used, and all new equipment is under tight security controls. These conditions also prevail at the Fardubice and Prague airfields.  5. Since 1 January 1951 all insignia has been adapted to Soviet standards.  6. Rest hotels at Karlovy Vary are now used as an army headquarters, possibly for the border control command. Many Soviet officers are stationed there; they are seldom seen in uniform. A direct Moscow-Kerlovy V-ry railroad connection is to be opened in March 1951.  7. Troops stationed throughout Czechoslovakia have recently been sent to the Bavarian border. No large concentrations of troops on the Austrian border have been reported to date.  25X1A *  Comment: It cannot be determined from the report whether these priests were chaplains with the Czech Republican Army or had formerly been regul members of this army.  6X1A   Comment: No specific units or numbers of men are mentioned by source caused by recent purges are to be filled with politically reliable persons. Reserve officers are to be called for extensive three-year training, possibly in the USSR, and those who are judge unreliable are to be reindoctrinated for military service.  2. Officers who had formerly served with the Czech Army of the First Republic and who are still of military age will be stripped of their ranks and drafted. This order affects many former priests.*  3. Slovak troops are still considered unreliable and are therefore mixed with other troops. Special units of unreliable but previously trained troops are being formed for work in mines. The training of new recruits is being continued  4. Old German and new Soviet equipment is used, and all new equipment is under tight security controls. These conditions also prevail at the Fardubice and Prague airfields.  5. Since 1 January 1951 all insignia has been adapted to Soviet standards.  6. Rest hotels at Karlovy Vary are now used as an army headquarters, possibly for the border control command. Many Soviet officers are stationed there; they are seldom seen in uniform. A direct Moscow-Karlovy Vary railroad connection is to be opened in March 1951.  7. Troops stationed throughout Czechoslovakia have recently been sent to the Bavarian border. No large concentrations of troops on the Austrian border have been reported to date.  25X1A *  Comment: It cannot be determined from the report whether these priests were chaplains with the Czech Republican Army or had formerly been regul members of this army.  6X1A  Comment: No specific units or numbers of men are mentioned by source eaused by recent purges are to be filled with politically reliable persons. Reserve officers are to be called for extensive three-year training, possibly in the USSR, and those who are judge unreliable are to be reindoctrinated for military service.  2. Officers who had formerly served with the Czech Army of the First Republic and who are still of military age will be stripped of their ranks and drafted. This order affects many former priests.*  3. Slovak troops are still considered unreliable and are therefore mixed with other troops. Special units of unreliable but previously trained troops are being formed for work in mines. The training of new recruits is being continued  4. Old German and new Soviet equipment is used, and all new equipment is under tight security controls. These conditions also prevail at the Fardubice and Prague airfields.  5. Since 1 January 1951 all insignia has been adapted to Soviet standards.  6. Rest hotels at Karlovy Vary are now used as an army headquarters, possibly for the border control command. Many Soviet officers are stationed there; they are seldom seen in uniform. A direct Moscow-Kerlovy Vary railroad connection is to be opened in March 1951.  7. Troops stationed throughout Czechoslovakia have recently been sent to the Bavarian border. No large concentrations of troops on the Austrian border have been reported to date.  25X1A *  Comment: It cannot be determined from the report whether these priests were chaplains with the Czech Republican Army or had formerly been regul members of this army.  SX1A *  Comment: No specific units or numbers of men are mentioned by source and who are still of military age will be stripped of their ranks and drafted. This order affects many former priests.*  3. Slovak troops are still considered unreliable and are therefore mixed with other troops. Special units of unreliable but previously trained troops are being formed for work in mines. The training of new recruits is being continued 4. Old German and new Soviet equipment is used, and all new equipment is under tight security controls. These conditions also prevail at the Fardubice and Prague airfields.  5. Since I January 1951 all insignia has been adapted to Soviet standards.  6. Rest hotels at Karlovy Vary are now used as an army headquarters, possibly for the border control command. Many Soviet officers are stationed there; they are seldom seen in uniform. A direct Moscow-Karlovy Vary railroad connection is to be opened in March 1951.  7. Troops stationed throughout Czechoslovakia have recently been sent to the Bavarian border. No large concentrations of troops on the Austrian border have been reported to date.  25X1A *  Comment: It cannot be determined from the report whether these priests were chaplains with the Czech Republican Army or had formerly been regul members of this army.  Comment: No specific units or numbers of men are mentioned by source				amen at mation	Vennadae other troops. Special units of unreliable but previously trained troops are being formed for work in mines. The training of new recruits is being continued.  4. Old German and new Soviet equipment is used, and all new equipment is under tight security controls. These conditions also prevail at the Fardubice and Prague airfields.  5. Since I January 1951 all insignia has been adapted to Soviet standards.  6. Rest hotels at Karlovy Vary are now used as an army headquarters, possibly for the border control command. Many Soviet officers are stationed there; they are seldom seen in uniform. A direct Moscow-Karlovy Vary railroad connection is to be opened in March 1951.  7. Troops stationed throughout Czechoslovakia have recently been sent to the Bavarian border. No large concentrations of troops on the Austrian border have been reported to date.  25X1A *  Comment: It cannot be determined from the report whether these priests were chaplains with the Czech Republican Army or had formerly been regul members of this army.  6X1A   Comment: No specific units or numbers of men are mentioned by source			caused by recent purges are to be filled with politic Reserve officers are to be called for extensive threin the USSR, and those who are judge unreliable are	ically reliable ee-year trainin	persons.
tight security controls. These conditions also prevail at the Fardubice and Prague airfields.  5. Since 1 January 1951 all insignia has been adapted to Soviet standards.  6. Rest hotels at Karlovy Vary are now used as an army headquarters, possibly for the border control command. Many Soviet officers are stationed there; they are seldom seen in uniform. A direct Moscow-Karlovy Very railroad connection is to be opened in March 1951.  7. Troops stationed throughout Czechoslovakia have recently been sent to the Bavarian border. No large concentrations of troops on the Austrian border have been reported to date.  25X1A *  Comment: It cannot be determined from the report whether these priests were chaplains with the Czech Republican Army or had formerly been regul members of this army.  Comment: No specific units or numbers of men are mentioned by source			caused by recent purges are to be filled with politic Reserve officers are to be called for extensive threin the USSR, and those who are judge unreliable are military service.  Officers who had formerly served with the Czech Arm, and who are still of military age will be stripped of	ically reliable ee-year trainin to be reindoct y of the First	persons.  g, possibly  rinated for  Republic
6. Rest hotels at Karlovy Vary are now used as an army headquarters, possibly for the border control command. Many Soviet officers are stationed there; they are seldom seen in uniform. A direct Moscow-Karlovy Vory railroad connection is to be opened in March 1951.  7. Troops stationed throughout Czechoslovakia have recently been sent to the Bavarian border. No large concentrations of troops on the Austrian border have been reported to date.  25X1A *  Comment: It cannot be determined from the report whether these priests were chaplains with the Czech Republican Army or had formerly been regul members of this army.  Comment: No specific units or numbers of men are mentioned by source		2.	caused by recent purges are to be filled with politic Reserve officers are to be called for extensive threin the USSR, and those who are judge unreliable are military service.  Officers who had formerly served with the Czech Arm and who are still of military age will be stripped of This order affects many former priests.*  Slovak troops are still considered unreliable and another troops. Special units of unreliable but previous	ically reliable ee-year trainin to be reindoct y of the First of their ranks re therefore mi iously trained	e persons.  ng, possibly  rinated for  Republic  and drafted.  xed with  troops are for the border control command, Many Soviet officers are stationed there; they are seldom seen in uniform. A direct Moscow-Karlovy Vory railroad connection is to be opened in March 1951.  7. Troops stationed throughout Czechoslovakia have recently been sent to the Bavarian border. No large concentrations of troops on the Austrian border have been reported to date.  25X1A *  Comment: It cannot be determined from the report whether these priests were chaplains with the Czech Republican Army or had formerly been regul members of this army.  Comment: No specific units or numbers of men are mentioned by source	,	2.	caused by recent purges are to be filled with politic Reserve officers are to be called for extensive threin the USSR, and those who are judge unreliable are military service.  Officers who had formerly served with the Czech Arm and who are still of military age will be stripped of This order affects many former priests.*  Slovak troops are still considered unreliable and an other troops. Special units of unreliable but previbeing formed for work in mines. The training of new Old German and new Soviet equipment is used, and all tight security controls. These conditions also previous training and the security controls.	ically reliable ee-year trainin to be reindoct y of the First of their ranks re therefore mi iously trained w recruits is b l new equipment	persons.  ag, possibly  rinated for  Republic  and drafted.  xed with  troops are  eing continued  is under Bavarian border. No large concentrations of troops on the Austrian border have been reported to date.  25X1A * Comment: It cannot be determined from the report whether these priests were chaplains with the Czech Republican Army or had formerly been regul members of this army.  5X1A  Comment: No specific units or numbers of men are mentioned by source		<ol> <li>3.</li> <li>4.</li> </ol>	caused by recent purges are to be filled with politic Reserve officers are to be called for extensive threin the USSR, and those who are judge unreliable are military service.  Officers who had formerly served with the Czech Arm and who are still of military age will be stripped of This order affects many former priests.*  Slovak troops are still considered unreliable and another troops. Special units of unreliable but previbeing formed for work in mines. The training of new Old German and new Soviet equipment is used, and all tight security controls. These conditions also prevengue airfields.	ically reliable ee-year trainin to be reindoct y of the First of their ranks re therefore mi iously trained w recruits is b l new equipment vail at the Far	e persons.  ag, possibly  crimated for  Republic  and drafted.  xed with  troops are  eing continued  is under  dubice and priests were chaplains with the Czech Republican Army or had formerly been regul members of this army.  5X1A   Comment: No specific units or numbers of men are mentioned by source		<ol> <li>3.</li> <li>4.</li> </ol>	caused by recent purges are to be filled with politic Reserve officers are to be called for extensive threin the USSR, and those who are judge unreliable are military service.  Officers who had formerly served with the Czech Arm and who are still of military age will be stripped of this order affects many former priests.*  Slovak troops are still considered unreliable and another troops. Special units of unreliable but previbeing formed for work in mines. The training of new Old German and new Soviet equipment is used, and all tight security controls. These conditions also previous airfields.  Since 1 January 1951 all insignia has been adapted to Rest hotels at Karlovy Vary are now used as an army for the border control command. Many Soviet officer they are seldom seen in uniform. A direct Moscow-Kerner and the seldom seen in uniform. A direct Moscow-Kerner and the seldom seen in uniform. A direct Moscow-Kerner and the seldom seen in uniform. A direct Moscow-Kerner and the seldom seen in uniform.	ically reliable ee-year trainin to be reindoct y of the First of their ranks re therefore mi iously trained w recruits is b l new equipment vail at the Far to Soviet stand headquarters, rs are statione	e persons.  ag, possibly  rinated for  Republic  and drafted.  xed with  troops are  eing continued  is under  dubice and  ards.  possibly  d there:
Comment: No specific units or numbers of men are mentioned by source		<ol> <li>3.</li> <li>4.</li> <li>6.</li> </ol>	caused by recent purges are to be filled with politic Reserve officers are to be called for extensive threin the USSR, and those who are judge unreliable are military service.  Officers who had formerly served with the Czech Arm and who are still of military age will be stripped of This order affects many former priests.*  Slovak troops are still considered unreliable and another troops. Special units of unreliable but previbeing formed for work in mines. The training of new Old German and new Soviet equipment is used, and all tight security controls. These conditions also prevent airfields.  Since 1 January 1951 all insignia has been adapted to Rest hotels at Karlovy Vary are now used as an army for the border control command. Many Soviet officer they are seldom seen in uniform. A direct Moscow-Kanection is to be opened in March 1951.  Troops stationed throughout Czechoslovakia have rebavarian border. No large concentrations of troops	ically reliable ee-year trainin to be reindoct y of the First of their ranks re therefore mi iously trained w recruits is b l new equipment vail at the Far to Soviet stand headquarters, rs are stationed arlovy Vory rained ecently been see	e persons.  ag, possibly  rinated for  Republic  and drafted.  xed with  troops are  eing continued  is under  dubice and  ards.  possibly  d there;  lroad con-  mt to the
25X1A		<ol> <li>3.</li> <li>4.</li> <li>6.</li> </ol>	caused by recent purges are to be filled with politic Reserve officers are to be called for extensive threin the USSR, and those who are judge unreliable are military service.  Officers who had formerly served with the Czech Arm and who are still of military age will be stripped of this order affects many former priests.*  Slovak troops are still considered unreliable and an other troops. Special units of unreliable but previbeing formed for work in mines. The training of new Old German and new Soviet equipment is used, and all tight security controls. These conditions also previous airfields.  Since I January 1951 all insignia has been adapted to Rest hotels at Karlovy Vary are now used as an army for the border control command. Many Soviet officer they are seldom seen in uniform. A direct Moscow-Kanection is to be opened in March 1951.  Troops stationed throughout Czechoslovakia have reflevation border. No large concentrations of troops have been reported to date.  Comment: It cannot be determined from the priests were chaplains with the Czech Republican Arm	ically reliable ee-year trainin to be reindoct y of the First of their ranks re therefore mi iously trained w recruits is b l new equipment vail at the Far to Soviet stand headquarters, rs are stationed arlovy Vory rained ecently been second the Austrian me report whether	e persons.  ag, possibly  rinated for  Republic  and drafted.  xed with  troops are  eing continued  is under  dubice and  ards.  possibly  d there;  lroad con-  nt to the  n border  er these
25X1A		<ol> <li>3.</li> <li>4.</li> <li>6.</li> </ol>	caused by recent purges are to be filled with politic Reserve officers are to be called for extensive threin the USSR, and those who are judgetunreliable are military service.  Officers who had formerly served with the Czech Arm and who are still of military age will be stripped of this order affects many former priests.*  Slovak troops are still considered unreliable and an other troops. Special units of unreliable but previbeing formed for work in mines. The training of new Old German and new Soviet equipment is used, and all tight security controls. These conditions also previous airfields.  Since I January 1951 all insignia has been adapted to Rest hotels at Karlovy Vary are now used as an army for the border control command. Many Soviet officer they are seldom seen in uniform. A direct Moscow-Kanection is to be opened in March 1951.  Troops stationed throughout Czechoslovakia have rebavarian border. No large concentrations of troops have been reported to date.  Comment: It cannot be determined from the priests were chaplains with the Czech Republican Arm members of this army.	ically reliable ee-year trainin to be reindoct y of the First of their ranks re therefore mi iously trained w recruits is b l new equipment vail at the Far to Soviet stand headquarters, rs are statione- arlovy Vory rai ecently been secon the Austria ne report whether my or had former	repersons.  In possibly rinated for republic and drafted.  Republic and drafted.  It was are eing continued is under dubice and ards.  Possibly d there; lroad community to the n border er these rly been regular.
		<ol> <li>3.</li> <li>4.</li> <li>6.</li> </ol>	caused by recent purges are to be filled with politic Reserve officers are to be called for extensive threin the USSR, and those who are judgetunreliable are military service.  Officers who had formerly served with the Czech Arm and who are still of military age will be stripped of this order affects many former priests.*  Slovak troops are still considered unreliable and an other troops. Special units of unreliable but previbeing formed for work in mines. The training of new Old German and new Soviet equipment is used, and all tight security controls. These conditions also previous airfields.  Since I January 1951 all insignia has been adapted to Rest hotels at Karlovy Vary are now used as an army for the border control command. Many Soviet officer they are seldom seen in uniform. A direct Moscow-Kanection is to be opened in March 1951.  Troops stationed throughout Czechoslovakia have rebavarian border. No large concentrations of troops have been reported to date.  Comment: It cannot be determined from the priests were chaplains with the Czech Republican Arm members of this army.	ically reliable ee-year trainin to be reindoct y of the First of their ranks re therefore mi iously trained w recruits is b l new equipment vail at the Far to Soviet stand headquarters, rs are statione- arlovy Vory rai ecently been secon the Austria ne report whether my or had former	repersons.  In possibly rinated for republic and drafted.  Republic and drafted.  It was are eing continued is under dubice and ards.  Possibly d there; lroad community to the n border er these rly been regular.

Approved For Release 2002/08/15 : CIA-RDP83-00415R007400170001-0 25X1A